4. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

4.1. Introduction

- 4.1.1. Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum conditions for lawful "Processing" of "Personal Information" by a "Responsible Party" (as such terms are defined under POPIA). These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA.
- 4.1.2. The Company requires Personal Information relating to both natural and legal persons in order to carry out its business and organisational functions. The manner in which this information is processed and the purpose for which it is processed is determined by the Company. Accordingly, the Company is a Responsible Party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the Personal Information of a Data Subject, amongst other things as prescribed by POPIA:
 - 4.1.2.1. is processed lawfully, fairly and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by the Company, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. The Company must also have a legal basis (for example, but not limited to, consent) to process Personal Information;
 - 4.1.2.2. is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected;
 - 4.1.2.3. will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that Processing is compatible with the original purpose;
 - 4.1.2.4. is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected;
 - 4.1.2.5. is accurate and kept up to date;
 - 4.1.2.6. will not be kept for longer than necessary;
 - 4.1.2.7. is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles – this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, is subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by the Company, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage;
 - 4.1.2.8. is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable.

4.2. Data Subject Rights

Data Subjects have the right to:

- 4.2.1. be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by The Company. The Data Subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach;
- 4.2.2. know whether The Company holds Personal Information about them and to access that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of the Company's PAIA Manual;
- 4.2.3. request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained Personal Information;
- 4.2.4. object to The Company's use of their Personal Information and request the deletion of such Personal Information (deletion would be subject to the Company's Record keeping requirements);

- 4.2.5. object to the Processing of Personal Information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications; and
- 4.2.6. complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPIA and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his, her or its Personal Information

4.3. Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information by the Company

As noted above, Personal Information held by the Company can only be processed for a specific purpose. The purpose for which the Company processes or will process Personal Information is set out below, provided however that this is not an exhaustive list: -
